SAVOIR FAIRE

New from the Old World: Paris-Milan Home. After 26 years' experience in the world of high-end European furniture, Nathalie Chianura has opened the door to a 3,000-square-foot showroom in north Scottsdale. It is filled with contemporary designs from factories in France and Italy. In addition, she will feature new designers from the U.S. Paris (for her mother)-Milan (for her father) also offers a design studio not only to help with purchases but also to guide renovations with a collaboration of local stores and European resources for flooring, lighting and more.
